Grand Opening September 13, 2008

After years quietly producing wine exclusively for wholesale distribution, winemakers Jay DeCianno, Dave Gaetani and David Camden are pleased to announce the opening of the Quattro Goombas Winery and Tasting Room in beautiful Aldie, Virginia. The winery is located just a short distance from Dulles Airport but it may as well be back in the old country. The beautiful vistas and traditional, old world wine making techniques will take you back in time. Relax and enjoy Quattro Goomba's wine from our log cabin tasting room and quiet decks. A tour of the twelve acre property and winemaking process is offered to all guests. Private tastings are offered every weekend. All are invited to our special Grand Opening Event on September 13, 2008!

Quattro's Goomba's is Italian for 4 close friends and defines the heart of our business. The Quattro brand represents our passion for friendship, family, celebration, and tradition. Quattro Goomba's Winery is located just one mile north of Gilberts Corner at the intersection of Routes 15 and 50 in historic Loudoun County. The winery is open to the public weekends from 11:00 am – 6:00 pm. For a complete listing of hours, events, rentals and directions, please visit our website at www.goombawine.com.

Mediterranean style, old world methods, and modern techniques are all hallmarks of the Quattro Goomba brand. Dry, fruity, smooth, balanced, clean finish with a hint of oak, and easy to drink best describe how Quattro Goomba's wines taste. The new facility will provide for a production capacity of 2500 cases that will be expertly hand crafted in the old world tradition. We will be introducing new Italian varietals and blends to our offering this Fall including Frascati, Malvasia Bianca and Trebbiano.

Come visit the Goombas, meet our friends and family and enjoy the tradition of wine making that has been passed on to us over many generations. We look forward to introducing you to our special wines and sharing our beautiful winery with you, your friends, and family. We know you will enjoy the peaceful surroundings and warm welcome that have become a Goomba tradition. By the time you leave, you just might be a Goomba too!
